Queen’s University invites internal applications for the position of Head of the Department of Pathology and Molecular Medicine. We are searching for an outstanding academic physician with a record of administrative leadership and excellence in research and clinical skills. The Head will be responsible for managing teams that foster continuing excellence in teaching, patient care and research at Queen’s and its affiliated teaching hospitals, Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston General Hospital and Providence Care. The qualified applicant must provide evidence of an ability to lead and work in an interdisciplinary, collaborative environment and have a demonstrated record of scholarly achievement. Applicants must be eligible for licensure in Ontario.

Encompassing the five divisions of Anatomic Pathology, Hematopathology, Genetics, Clinical Microbiology and Clinical Chemistry, the Department of Pathology and Molecular Medicine has comprehensive programs in education, research, and clinical care. With more than 50 departmental faculty, the Department is engaged in teaching laboratory medicine and the pathogenesis of disease; training the next generation of biomedical research scientists and laboratory physicians; conducting basic and translational research which advances the understanding and treatment of disease; and delivering diagnostic services and clinical programs to the people of southeastern Ontario. The Department currently has in excess of $4.5M in research grant funding. Further information may be obtained by visiting the Department’s web site at http://www.path.queensu.ca/.

Applications and nominations, the former to be accompanied by a letter summarizing leadership and administrative experience, a curriculum vitae and the names and full contact information of three referees, are to be directed to: Drs. Christopher Simpson and Michael Fitzpatrick, Search Committee Co-Chairs, c/o Katie Roberts, Faculty of Health Sciences, Macklem House, Queen’s University, 18 Barrie Street, Kingston, Ontario, Canada, K7L3N6 or by email to katie.roberts@queensu.ca. Review of applications and nominations will commence on January 4, 2021 and will continue until the position is filled. Support to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that considers an applicant’s accessibility needs, will be provided in the recruitment processes. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact Katie Roberts as indicated above.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens/permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada; OR I am not a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.
